Others represented on the council: We are lucky to have representation from many service agencies on or council to include OVR, MH/IDD, AHEDD, Parent-to-Parent, HACC, and the Center for Independent Living

Schedule and location of meetings: Normally there are four full-council meetings throughout the course of a school year. The council is hosted on a rotating basis by each district as well as supporting agencies. Please contact anyone from the list above for this year’s schedule.

Events sponsored by the council:

Student Transition Day – Held in the month of April at the Gettysburg branch of HACC. Students with disabilities in their junior year of school attend an entire day of information sessions geared towards transition. Topics may include college disability services, employment, finance, and health. There is also a vendor area with representatives from various community agencies and post-secondary schools who may offer services after high school.

Teacher Informational Sessions – Held every two years. Representatives from agencies who provide services to individuals with disabilities in the Adams County area present to teachers to make them aware of the supports they can offer.

School Districts Participating in the Adams County Transition Council include the following: Bermudian Springs, Conewago Valley, Fairfield, Gettysburg Area, Hanover Public, Littlestown Area, South Western, Upper Adams
